

DUXBURY CLIPPER
DECEMBER 3, 1953

Disastrous Fire In Duxbury

As a result of a fire that swept it early Thanksgiving morning, the main dormitory of the Center Theater is a total loss and must be razed. The fire raged for about an hour before the Duxbury Fire Department was notified at 2:22 a.m. All the apparatus rolled and 42 firemen kept the fire from spreading to the main buildings. Some firefighters remained on the scene until 7 a.m.